NYSE Notice of Noncompliance

On November 18, 2026, Endava plc (the "Company") received a notice of noncompliance from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") noting that the Company is not in compliance with Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual, Annual and Quarterly Report Timely Filing Criteria, due to the delayed filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2026 (the "Annual Report").

The NYSE has informed the Company that it has up to six months from the filing due date of November 17, 2026 to file the Annual Report to regain compliance (the "Initial Cure Period"). If the Company does not regain compliance within the Initial Cure Period, the NYSE may, in its sole discretion, grant an additional period of up to six months, or may determine to commence suspension and delisting procedures. The Company intends to file the Annual Report and regain compliance within the Initial Cure Period; however, there can be no assurance that the Company will ultimately regain compliance with all applicable NYSE listing standards.

On November 19, 2026, the Company issued a press release announcing its receipt of the NYSE notice. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 6-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE

Exhibit 99.1 is hereby expressly incorporated by reference into the Company's registration statement on Form F-3 (File No. 333-229213) and registration statements on Form S-8 (File Nos. 333-228717, 333-248904, 333-259900, 333-268067, 333-274571, 333-282207 and 333-290043), and any related prospectuses, as such registration statements may be amended from time to time, and to be a part thereof from the date on which this report is filed, to the extent not superseded by documents or reports subsequently filed or furnished.

Endava Receives Notice from NYSE Regarding Delayed Filing of Annual Report on Form 20-F

LONDON, November 19, 2026 — Endava plc (NYSE: DAVA) ("Endava" or the "Company") today announced that it received a notice from the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on November 18, 2026 stating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements under Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual as a result of the Company's delay in filing its Annual Report on Form 20-F for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2026 (the "Annual Report") with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

The notice has no immediate effect on the listing or trading of the Company's securities on the NYSE subject to the Company's compliance with other continued listing requirements.

As previously disclosed in a Form 12b-25 filed by the Company on November 3, 2026, the Company was unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file the Annual Report within the prescribed time period due to the internal investigation initiated by the Company's Audit Committee into the accounting treatment of certain customer and supplier agreements. As a result of the investigation and the identification of separate accounting errors relating to revenue recognition, the Company is in the process of restating its previously reported financial results for fiscal 2026.

The Company's preliminary estimate of the restatement's impact on the Company's previously reported fiscal 2026 financial results, its disclosure controls and procedures, and its internal control over financial reporting remains consistent with its press release issued on October 28, 2026. Endava expects adjustments to its fiscal 2026 revenue to be equivalent to approximately 2% – 4% of the Company's fiscal 2025 revenue, it does not expect any adjustments to its fiscal 2025 results, and it does not expect a restatement of prior fiscal years or previous periods relating to those prior fiscal years. Management is currently in discussions with its lenders as it evaluates these matters and the potential impact on the Company's revolving credit facility.

Under NYSE rules, Endava has a six-month period from the filing due date of November 17, 2026 to file the Annual Report with the SEC and regain compliance. The Company continues to work diligently with its advisors and auditors to file the Annual Report as soon as reasonably practicable and regain compliance with the NYSE's continued listing requirements.
